Description

Sumptuous hunting tabriz rug predominantly orange, blue, apricot ....., measuring 138 cm wide by 220 cm long. Indo-Persian rug using the criteria of the great decorations of the Persian tradition of the 16th and 17th centuries. Around 1960-1970 in very good condition, we can hardly imagine the immense work to tie such a marvel, medallion, animals and border calligraphy. The quality of these Indo-Persian pieces is not to be demonstrated, the work is fine, precise and durable and the materials used are of first quality. This rug is clean, the wool added with silk is soft, admirably knotted and finely tight as these rugs always are, revealing shades full of contrasts, riders, stags, intertwining branches and admirably drawn flowers. Note the beautiful border decorated with cartouches and delicate calligraphy.

Comfortable traditional wool rug for high traffic.

The shades underline this skilful floral design in the great tradition of Persian art that can also be found in Mughal art, inspired by the miniatures of the school of Tabriz, then capital of the Persian Empire.

For information: Tabriz (Azeri: Təbriz/ تهریز, formerly Tauris), is the capital of the province of East Azerbaijan, in the northwest of Iran (Iranian Azerbaijan).

Tabriz lies on the course of the Talkheh River (also called Aji-Chai), near Lake Urmia, close to the borders of the Republic of Azerbaijan and Armenia. It is the door of Persia from north to west, Tabriz rugs have an extreme importance in the quality of Persian rugs and a wonderful international reputation.

The Tabriz are among the most popular carpets in the world, their work is always very fine and durable over time.

This rug has been professionally and environmentally cleaned.
