

Plaster Sculpture

Description

Golden plaster sculpture from the 20th century representing the symbolic "Psyche revived by the kiss of Love" Originally this sculpture was made by the Italian Antonio Canova. The myth of Eros and Psyche is that of a love story that begins under strange auspices, but will withstand all trials. Good general condition, note a small tear on the back, sculpture on a wooden base. Note, the wings are placed on the sculpture by small iron tenons allowing very good stability and facilitating its movement. Possible delivery Contact me at 0678876161 or 0243446489
