Description

Portrait of a young girl with shells partly heightened with gold. The young girl is seated on a rock and observes a shell she has just picked up. She is wearing a dress with a bodice and ruffles. at his feet, a basket filled with shells is placed on the beach.. it is a biscuit molded and enhanced with gold in the Art Nouveau style. Mark in underglaze blue to identify. Very good state of preservation despite some wear to the gold. Very nice decorative object.
