Description

Beautiful proof in pewter representing the nymph Syrinx charming Pan, hallmarked and signed Georges Van de Voorde (1878-1970). An eclectic Belgian sculptor, Georges Van de Voorde was a student at the Courtrai Academy and then became a professor and director of the Academy of Decorative Arts in Molenbeek (Brussels). "La Fontaine" is a poetic work depicting Syrinx, the Nymph in love with Pan, god of nature, here represented by a bust. Syrinx, scantily clad, her combed curls surrounding her smiling face, tickles Pan's beard. The fountain appears to be filled with water and reflects the scene through the use of a mirror. It is surrounded by finely carved vegetation and birds. This large pewter sculpture will delight with its delicacy and the harmony that emerges from it.  Period:
