Angelo Gaetano Sciolaro (1927-1994) was the owner of Sciolaro Lighting and designer for the Italian manufacturer Stilnovo in the 1950s. It was while working for Stilnovo that Sciolaro created his creations most recognizable and famous, a series of multi-light chandeliers fashioned with shiny and matte metal, evoking futuristic visions of the nascent space age". Throughout the 1960s, 70s and 80s, his designs were in demand, they were imported into the American market by Lightolier & Progress Lighting. During this same
