Fumio Otani (1929 - 1995)

Japanese sculptor

"Organic composition"

Marble sculpture

25 x 31 x 17 cm

Fumio Otani is an artist of Japanese origin. He makes sculptures in various materials such as wood, metal or marble. Otani completed his training at the Beaux-Arts in Tokyo, then became a student of the famous sculptor Zadkine. He gives free rein to the forms of his sculptures which intertwine with beautiful curves giving this effect of dynamism and fluidity.
