

Large Marble Bust Of Woman In The Spirit Of The XVIII Eme Century

10 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : 48 cm

Height : 70 cm

Description

Superb female bust in the spirit of the 18th century, 19th century manufacturing. a bust remarkable for the beauty of the features and the delicacy and quality of the sculpture.

the mixture of the two marbles is an additional refinement and the color contrast highlights this young woman.

indeed the coat or the dress is carved in a very beautiful peach blossom marble.

the drape is skillfully done and the contrasting veins of this marble highlight the charming face of this young woman.

the face is of great finesse, the hair elaborated in a bun from which escape locks falling on the shoulders. A rose placed in the hair embellishes the whole.

the finesse of the sculpture of this face in white

Dealer

Antoine Claeys - Maison du XVème
antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 85 53 27 42

24 grande Rue

Nogent l'Artaud 02 310

marble is quite remarkable and we feel that the sculptor was inspired by the pretty women of the 18th century, in particular under Louis XV. the square base in Carrara white was redone a long time ago. a strikingly intense bust, offering a very beautiful setting.

dimensions:

70 cm high, 48 cm at the widest and 19 cm square at the pedestal.

We deliver and ship anywhere in the world, please contact us for a precise quote.