Description

Dresser from the 60s Handcrafted, with respect for know-how, it is entirely made of exotic wood, which makes it a reliable, robust piece of furniture that is protected from the ravages of time. It is composed of three drawers, each opening with two round handles. It is decorated with simple moldings, and rests on 4 oriental-style legs. What makes it so original and unique is its color! Indeed, it sports a beautiful burgundy red paint, very shiny. Its authenticity is accentuated by traces of blows and rubbing, light, but revealing the sky blue color it had before, for the most beautiful of effects.
