Wow, this is a rug that I love !!!

Important Tabriz with a flowery rosette caught between two blue trees of life, from the 19th century, measuring 253 cm wide by 357 cm long.

In sublime condition for its age, the finest quality kerk wool, and fantastic colors.

This beautiful Persian rug takes up the criteria of ancient Persian decorations, knotted with great finesse and a superb quality of kerk wool.

From the second half of the 19th century, we can hardly imagine the immense work to tie such a marvel.

The quality of these Persian pieces is not to be demonstrated, the work is fine, precise and durable.

The materials used are top quality: fine and soft kerk wool, taken from the neckline and under the belly of the lambs, and fine cotton for the weft.

This rug is clean (impeccable), the wool is beautifully knotted and finely tight as these rugs always are. It reveals shades full of contrasts, many colors, blues, mauves, reds, curry, black and ivory.

A rosette with three blues, purple and curry placed on a field of deep wine, four blue spandrels decorated with stylized flowers and palms.

It is surrounded by a border comprising palm leaves and bouquets of roses.

Traditional, comfortable and high traffic wool rug. How many have sown their steps on this carpet ?

The shades underline this skilful floral design in the great tradition of Persian art that can also be found in Mughal art, inspired by the miniatures of the school of Tabriz, then capital of the Persian Empire.

For information: Tabriz (Azeri: Təbriz/ تهریز, formerly Tauris), is the capital of the province of East Azerbaijan, in the northwest of Iran (Iranian Azerbaijan).

Tabriz lies on the course of the Talkheh River (also called Aji-Chai), near Lake Urmia, close to the borders of the Republic of Azerbaijan and Armenia. It is the door of Persia from north to west, Tabriz rugs have an extreme importance in the quality of Persian rugs and a very great international reputation.

The Tabriz are among the most popular carpets in the world, their work is always very fine and durable over time.

This rug has been professionally and environmentally cleaned.
