Description

Important pair of celadon porcelain lamps - 19th century.

The vases are panned and decorated with white decorations in relief. We find a Greek ornamental frieze underlined by a fine garland of flowers.

This magnificent and rare pair of lamps is adorned with a gilded and chiseled bronze mount of great elegance and Louis XVI style.

Work of great quality to bring closer to the productions of the Parisian workshops "Maison Gagneau".

These lamps have been completely cleaned. New electrification. Gilded twisted wire finish. E27 socket.

Sold with two new white shades, diameter 34 cm. In perfect condition.
