Description

Large and elegant flat desk in rosewood veneer, opening with three drawers in front. This office is said to be middle because the ornamentation of chiseled and gilded bronze embellishes each of the facades. The tray is curved surrounded by a gilded bronze mold and lined with its original leather gilded with small iron patterns. The arched feet are enhanced with falls of bronze and finished with hooves. The frame and the drawers are made of solid oak. The three drawers which marry the scalloped shape of the belt are equipped with locks and the three keys are present.
