Description

Furniture from the Val de Loire in the spirit of Louis XIV in Solid Cherry, composed on the front of two paneled doors with asymmetrical movement opening independently, with a fixed pilaster in the middle, as well as a flap. This one benefits from three Board elements assembled with key and pegged. It is maintained by Iron Compasses composed of four articulated parts with Knees and Hooks. We discover inside a Large Free Surface composed of six Vertical Lockers. Equipped in the upper part with two drawers, this Regional Furniture is completed with Entrances, Hinges and Iron Locks in perfect working order, accompanied by their Keys. In the lower part, a Traverse slightly cut into Central Volutes surmounts the bottom of the Sculpted Front Legs, restored later. The Sides of this
