Description

Carrara marble fireplace from the late nineteenth century, ca.1870. Found in Brussels-Belgium.

The Napoléon III-style is highly eclectic (1852-1871).

Sturdy shaped fireplace, double moulded shelf with rounded corners. It shows various ornamentation.

The panelled frieze and the endblocks are profoundly carved with botanic carvings.

Decorated jambs are standing on sturdy footblocks. This fireplace can be replaced as a 'mantle' and front-version as well.

This fireplace will be delivered with original, old marble floortiles, to make a frontfloor.

Antique Fireplaces First has also original decor-fireproof tiles in stock to finish the foyer, only an option if you go for a real open fire.
