Description

Chest of drawers in the Louis XV style, in veneer, lacquer and bronze. The Japanese-style lacquer decorations, in cartridges decorated with gilded and chiseled bronzes and in a fretted shape, the cartridge on the front ending in the lower part with a shell, represent characters on the front, a pagoda, a boat and on the profiles, a teapot and planters. Marble top called "breccia d'Alep". Shell-shaped lock, key and bronze clogs.

French work realized circa 1950.
