Description

Fine cage pendulum in gilded bronze, the cage is surmounted by a vase on a pedestal and on the front, a knot holds garlands of flowers on each side of the movement.

Below, a bronze decorated with a basket of fruit, foliage and vines is fixed on the glass.

On the sides, bronzes decorated with a knot and branches of flowers are also fixed to the glass walls.

The whole rests on a white marble base with four spinning top legs, decorated on the front with a frieze of scrolls of flowers.

Rear door, sun beam and all glass walls are bevelled.

Vincenti et Cie movement, silver medal in 1855.

Napoleon III period. Good quality, wear to the gilding.
