Description

White porcelain tripod milk jug decorated with gold twig seedlings, neck and spout lined with gold wolf teeth.

France, Paris, 18th century

Mark in red from the Comte de Provence factory.

Small accident at the base of the cove.

NB: You can admire the very elegant shape of the milk jug, inspired by the shapes of the Sèvres milk jug and the use of very beautiful gilding for the decoration thanks to the protection of the Count of Provence, who circumvented the royal monopoly .
