Description

Box made of ceramic by the LENCI Manufactory in Turin, around the late 1950s and early 1960s.

The box in question is cubic in shape and features a lid with a figurative knob, as two small mushrooms are depicted. The side faces of the box are painted with polychrome enamels and see the depiction of a simple, stylized hillside landscape with a few trees, some small houses and clouds; all bordered by black colored stripes.

The state of preservation is excellent; on the bottom is the mark with the inscription "Lenci / MADE IN ITALY - TORINO."

Measurements without lid are 14 x 14 x 13 cm; with lid 14 x 14 x 20 cm.
