Description

In the style of Topino Charles, rectangular chest of drawers in satin wood and satin veneer on an oak frame, it opens in three rows with three drawers, one of which is in the band and two without crosspiece. Model with rounded and fluted uprights for the front legs, resting on four tapered legs. Fine ornamentation of gilded and chiseled bronze; keyholes, pull rings, frames of heart lines, asparagus, capitals and clogs. Gray veined white marble top, molded with a fillet. Our chest of drawers is characterized by the elegance of its proportions and the quality of its finishes, signs of the work of a great Parisian master dating from the Louis XVI period.
