Description

Old & authentic movie poster. Rare decoration painted by Marius Rossillon, whose nickname O Galop and in particular known for having created the character of the michelin bidendum. The poster concerns the silent short film from 1916 "Dranem in love with Cleopatra". Charles Armand Ménard dit Dranem (anacyclie), is a French singer and entertainer. His repertoire of incongruously humorous and often scabrous songs made him one of the most popular café-concert stars of the Belle Epoque. The poster is re-lined, ready to be installed. 165cm x 119cm Very fresh colors.
