

18th Century Portrait, Louis XVII Dauphin Son Of Marie Antoinette & Louis XVI Signed

700 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

<https://www.proantic.com/en/1104392-18th-century-portrait-louis-xvii-dauphin-son-of-marie-antoinette-amp-louis-xvi-signed.h.html>

Description

Old & rare pencil drawing. Royalist portrait depicting the young Dauphin, future Louis XVII. The young prince is represented in bust, wearing a muslin turban. Portrait dated 1796 and signed in sanguine A. Boudrot. Presented in a gilded wooden frame. The Madame Royal pendant is for sale in another ad. 24cm x 20cm In good condition Louis-Charles of France, better known as Louis XVII, born in Versailles on March 27, 1785 and died in Paris on June 8, 1795, was the second son of Louis XVI and Marie-Antoinette. Titled Duke of Normandy at birth, he became Dauphin of France in 1789 on the death of his older brother, then Prince Royal under the terms of the Constitution from 1791 to 1792. During the French Revolution, the royal family was imprisoned on August 10, 1792 at the Tour du

Dealer

Le Bûcher des Vanités

Objets d'art, curiosités, antiquités et décoration du XVIIIème au XXème.

Tel : 06 84 54 80 53

Mobile : 00 33 6 84 54 80 53

300 rue de Solférino

Lille 59800

Temple, then Louis XVI was executed on January 21, 1793. Louis-Charles was then recognized by the governments of the powers united against France and by his uncle, the future Louis XVIII, as the holder of the crown of France, under the name of "Louis XVII". He died in captivity in 1795, at the age of ten. The possibility of its survival has long aroused the curiosity of certain authors.