Description

This unique and exceptional Louis XVI style dining table was handcrafted in France towards the end of the 19th century, around 1880.

The tapered legs and the front and side sides of the table are also adorned with elegant decor.

This neoclassical piece is not only a functional dining table, but also a work of art that adds a representative touch to any dining room while remaining functional.

With its size, this remarkable table seats up to eight people and is in excellent condition with a beautiful white/beige patina finish.
