Description

the Reward "Young Boy With Dog By Georges Maxim, Spelter Beginning Of The XX Eme Century"

A very good quality spelter sculpture by Georges Maxim (1885-1940), famous art deco sculptor known for his subjects of women typical of the 1930s but also for more amusing subjects like our boy with a dog.

a young baker handing a candy to his dog as a reward.

the subject is charming, the details very finely carved for a spelter, look at the boy's face, the details of his clothes, his scarf, the piece of fabric on his pants etc...

signed Georges Maxim on the embankment and bearing a founder's stamp around the circumference of the embankment.
