Description

Empire style bolster composed of a circular belt in vertical veneer on solid mahogany. On its top rests an anthracite marble with deep shades reflecting the light. The set is supported by three solid mahogany columns embellished with chiseled bronze rings in the upper and lower part. A helical base with concave shapes benefiting from 3 geometrically arranged mahogany veneers supports this small cylindrical piece of furniture. Its beautiful mahogany colors combined with its elegant marble will make this harness an essential part of your interior.  Period: early 20th century Excellent condition after restoration in our workshop.
