Description

Very elegant Louis XV style table d'appoint in rosewood and mahogany marquetry in reserves, very finely chiseled gilt bronze ornamentation. Four slightly curved legs presenting a top with sinuous and asymmetrical fretwork endowed with a beautiful radiant marquetry; a gilded bronze mold encircles the whole. A belt drawer. High quality Parisian work, to be compared to very similar models by François Linke. Perfect condition, a visit to our workshop to restore it to its original superb condition with a beautiful natural french polish.
