

---

Japonisme, Planter With Currycombs, Dammouse And Haviland, Circa 1880

1 580 EUR

Signature : Haviland et Dammouse

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Ceramic

Length : 47cm

Width : 21cm

Height : 23cm

Description

Superb Art object, due to the collaboration of various artists inspired by Japonism, gathered in "the Ateliers d'Auteuil: Ch.Haviland, Limoges for ceramics, (signed and No. 127 hollow), impressionist decoration on dark background and much glazed by E. Dammouse, signed hollow E.D in paste, and this bronze sculptor who invented the handles with currycombs, remained anonymous.

Decor is floral on front, lakeside on back.

Dimensions: 47cm x 23cm x 21cm. Weight: 4.5kg

Condition: overall good, one minimal chip on edge, but also one crack on front, not very visible. (red arrows);

No UV detectable restoration.

between 1876 and 1886 by Edouard Dammouse

Dealer

Eclecticnimes

Curiosity, Collection Cabinet objects,

Tel : +33665241111

Mobile : 06-65-24-11-11

Bellegarde 30127

(1850 - 1903), HAVILAND & Cie, Atelier
d'AUTEUIL

This object is for immediate purchase, payable by credit card or paypal. Insured shipping: France, by Colissimo.

Other destinations on request;

-eclectic- antique dealers since 1970, Siret: FR 24.430113233. Invoice and Certificate are attached to each of our shipments.