Description

inspired by 18th century sculptures in the spirit of Clodion, this terracotta is not an edition terracotta but an original full terracotta made by the hands of the artist.

attention it is full and the weight is therefore consequent.

The artist was inspired by bacchanalia scenes from antiquity and the terracottas of Clodion. a beautiful seated bacchante, her chest bare, her forehead adorned with a crown of vine branches, and casts a smiling face towards a toddler with her arms stretched out on her legs.

she is busy placing a bunch of grapes in a cup while watching the putto.
