Painter and publicist, Bruno Secondi was born on November 11, 1952 in Clermont-Ferrand.

A creative and dreamy child, he escapes into drawing and painting. Admitted to the Beaux-Arts at the age of 16, he obtained, in 1973, the national diploma from the school of art and architecture of Marseille Luminy. After a

"magmatic" period inspired by his region of land and volcanoes, he turned to abstraction and color. In 1974, he founded his Clermont agency and became an advertiser, an activity he continued until his death on August 26, 2020. Not particularly looking to sell his works, he did not give up exploring the art of painting. abstract compositions with contrasting and multiple colors.
