Description

Murano glass vase. First third of the 20th century. Hand-decorated vase with three blue glass supports. In the neck of the vase, this intense blue crystal of the three supports repeats itself again. The body of the vase is gray adorned with small flowers with four orange tips and thin chains in the form of white necklaces. It is also decorated with gold both on the edge, a little worn by the passage of time, and on the three bases.
