Description

Rare and fine quality Louis XV style 1940s game table in inlay rosewood, the legs are long and slender. The decoration is on each side so you can place the tables also in the centre of the room. Made with precious inlay wood. The decorations are of floreal taste. We advise you to look carefully at all the images to understand the refined decoration work. The table top opens and becomes a game table. Really delicious tables. Used good condition but perfect condition ready to be placed in your elegant home.
