Description

Watercolor Representative André Dassary For Ramuntcho for his performance at the Odéon in April 1948 Dedicated by himself lower right Ramuntcho is basically a love and adventure novel set in the middle of Basque smugglers, its title is the name of its main character, the young and handsome hero Ramuntcho. Despite the folkloric nature of his description of regional customs, in a setting inspired in the author by the discovery of his adopted land (Loti rented, in Sare, a house from 1893 and died in Hendaye in 1923), this book has become an emblematic work of the Basque Country.
