Description
-------------

Ivory Coast, Baoulé people, mid-20th century, very pretty anthropo-zoomorphic dance mask in the image of a beautiful human face remarkable for the purity of the features, the elegance of the lines and the concavity of the horns. Combination between man and animal, this mask evokes the "Yu" spirits intermediate between Gods and Men.

We can note the perfect balance of forms, the beautiful internal patina attesting to its age and the general finesse of execution. Height 41 cm (53 cm with the base). The scale witness on the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a well-known brand. Good general condition except for normal wear and without affecting the aesthetics.

We take particular care with our packaging by using optimum protection. The shipment is made
