Description

Beautiful object, soap shaped, well in the hands, from turned and hollowed boxwood; a snuffbox with two uses: pinch, shake. The turner gave it the shape of a big "onion" watch, an ergonomic shape that adapts to all vest pockets, lid opens by one molding mustache shaped, weir is blocked with help of a turned bone zipper, once attached by a fine cord.

French Populaire art, 2nd half of 19th century
