Description

Lively street view of several characters strolling between various shops with Art Deco facades, houses with Renaissance and classical architecture, with a Gothic cathedral in the background. Other interesting details should also be noted, such as the wide variety of advertising signs or the details of the green cart in the foreground. This watercolor is a beautiful time marker. A signature to be identified at the bottom right. Note: this drawing is in very good condition. Frame repainted in black afterwards. Please take a good look at the photos.
