

Pair Of Chinese Porcelain Plates With "pompadour" Decor, 18th C.

2 800 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Restauré

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 23 cm

Description

Pair of Chinese porcelain plates with polychrome decoration called "Pompadour" with Famille Rose enamels of flowers and flowering branches of pomegranates and peonies framing crests with eagle and fish motifs attributed to Madame de Pompadour. Around 1750, Qianlong period (1736-1795). D. 23 cm. Chip and crack repeated on the wing for one plate, shock at the bottom of the other plate, eagles taken back.

Dealer

JM BEALU & FILS

Old ceramics

Tel : 01 45 48 46 53

3 rue du Bac

Paris 75007