Description

Baptismal dress, late 19th century England, handmade. Original for us, this percale dress has a sought-after shape with a bodice with a yoke and inlay of lace (net?) and frieze embroidery. The central panel, edged with lace, is worked with small alternating folds of embroidery and lace. Ruffles adorn the sleeves. The set is very charming in very good condition which means that it can be worn again! Dimensions: height 98 cm, width at the waist 26cm, width of the skirt at the bottom 75 cm.
