Biography: Henri Alexander Robbe (Courtrai 1807 - Brussels 1899) is a romantic Belgian painter recognized for his remarkable compositions of still lifes, flowers and fruits, he generally paints on canvas or wood panel. While he had initially chosen a career as a music teacher in Paris, he returned to Brussels in 1840 and was trained in painting by his older brother, the already recognized painter Louis Robbe. He quickly acquired a reputation as a
