Description

Finely chiseled bronze candlestick gilded with mercury with rich rockery decoration and a cupid supporting the arm of light Work after a drawing by Juste Aurèle Meissonnier, famous ornamentalist of the first half of the 18th century, born in Turin in Italy in 1695, he worked in Paris until 1750 and produced an extraordinary collection of drawings of art objects with very pronounced curves in the Italian manner and French refinement. This work certainly made from his sketches by the Saint Germain workshop offers you a remarkable quality of execution. Period mercury gilding perfectly well preserved, crowned C hallmark on the underside of the torch. To note: Drillings for electrification Free shipping in France and EU
