Description

Very beautiful solid walnut cabinet opening on the front with two leaves and two drawers. Our furniture comes from the southwest region and is made up of two superimposed parts. It is topped with a pediment with broken sides with a central top. It can be presented with or without a pediment. It rests on two square section legs at the back and two rive legs at the front. Each part is composed of a door and a drawer and is equipped with a shelf. This piece of furniture was made in the 19th century using older elements. It is of high quality and has a superb patina.
