Description

Alfred Lombard (1884-1973) Landscape with bridge, gouache, 31 x 47 cm, artist's stamp lower right.

Born in Marseille, Alfred Lombard participated in the Fauve adventure from 1907 with Girieud, Verdilhan and Camoin. He participated in the Provencal artistic Renaissance with Girieud, organizing the Salon de Mai in 1912 and 1913.

In 1914, he exhibited at the Galerie Rosenberg then at Druet. From 1920 he devoted himself to large-scale decoration with orders for the "Atlantique" and "Normandie" liners in collaboration with the architect Jean Patout and for the Decorative Arts Exhibition of 1925 and the International Exhibition of 1937.
