Large altar ornament and matching candlestick, gilt bronze and brass, 19th century

The bronze neogothic style tripod base made of dragons and vegetal decorations, supports a vase that a long brass stem raises from, ornamented with leaves, ears of wheat, bunches of grape and flowers.

The candlestick, set on a round base, is made of the same elements and shows three capitals.

Good overall condition, worn out gilding. One flower lacks its pistil, and one capital of the candlestick is to retie (see pictures).
