Description

Small regency chest of drawers from the early 18th century, in rosewood marquetry. Opening with four drawers mounted on oak. Beautiful decoration of finely chiseled gilded bronzes, from a later period. The uprights are rounded and, which is rare, have concave and convex grooves. The rear was redone by a cabinetmaker during the 19th century. Small restorations of use of the marquetry, varnished with a pad by our workshop. Original royal red marble. Delivery possible, do not hesitate to contact us.
