Description

Persian Hériz rug, Iranian Azerbaijan circa 1980 in very good condition, almost perfect. Heavy and dense, a very comfortable rug when you like thick, traditional rugs.

In highland wool, hand-knotted, natural colors for an ethnic rug with approximately 250,000 knots per m².

This rug has beautiful shades of color, developed over time, dark red, midnight blue, ivory, lighter blues, curry, which makes it very bright.

The very ornate ivory field of stylized palm fronds presents a large medallion set with four spandrels.

The whole surrounded by a border of large stylized flowers, the most beautiful effect.

The medallion is placed like a large flower in the middle of the carpet followed on both sides by two long pendants. The white demarcating the medallion and the spandrels adds a lot to the reading and beauty of the carpet. The bangs are full and flawless.

The whole is harmonious and is in very good condition. The Hériz enjoy an excellent reputation like other rugs in the Hériz family.

From the small town of Heriz which is located about fifty kilometers east of Tabriz, with its neighbor Ghorovan, come some of the most easily recognizable (by their geometry) Persian carpets. Primarily in the medallion design on a red or brick background color, the curvi-linear designs so typical of Persia have no place in the Heriz rug. The designs are completely angular, the closest features to the Caucasus are not far to the north. These woven, colorful rugs are very durable and make ideal decor for large rooms.

This rug has been professionally and eco-friendly cleaned. For any request I can be reached on 06 13 36 09 30 or winsteinprovence@gmail.com
