Description

Large neo-Greek amphora vase made by F. Levillain and F. Barbedienne in bronze with two patinas, object dating from the end of the 19th century. It rests on four hooved feet and a four-lobed base, the handles represent two heads of bearded gods. The profile of Bacchus is represented in the center, it is accompanied by branches of vines, a harvest scene, amphorae, a thyrsus... which echo this character, God of wine. Imposing and very elegant piece. The object can be presented as a lamp, it has an old lampshade with some defects but of high quality.
