Description

Important gouache from Naples, representing a nocturnal eruption of Vesuvius animated by boats and people.

dated at the bottom "eruption of September 29, 1833". beautiful composition and glowing color effects of the eruption at night reflecting on the waters of the bay.

pretty channel frame in old gilded wood and original slightly bubbled protective glass.
some lack of color and a few small spots of humidity due to time but not serious.

a beautiful and rare view of Naples from a nighttime eruption.

probably a souvenir from the grand tour.
