Description

A large and beautiful miniature painted on ivory. It is an oil with gouache enhancements. It's a scene, I think it is, Adam and Eve greeting two loves, it's bucolic which changes from the eternal portraits... With a chiseled gilded bronze frame with additions Signed H. CAGOUARD Around 1840 In very good condition The front silk must have been changed...Small stains The rest cleaned...It is complete, even has clips to hang it on the wall...And it has its original bisote glass. A truly beautiful object. .. Weight...310 gr
