Description

This lithograph is natural, it has its original frame and its protective glass. For the condition, we report spots of rust in places visible in the photos. The lithograph itself is rather well preserved, the past is affected by rust spots. Christian Jacques Boullaire (1893-1976) is a French designer, engraver and painter. He has illustrated numerous works by carrying out different types of engravings (wood, burins, drypoints, etchings, lithographs, etc.). In 1959, Jacques Boullaire was appointed official painter of the Navy. In 1992, the Salon de la Marine, which took place at the National Maritime Museum in Paris, paid tribute to him. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the object. For the condition, please detail the photos. Do not hesitate to zoom in. The photos are an integral part of the description.
