three adjustable shelves. It can be turned into a wardrobe for hanging clothes and even for storing shoes. The depth of the furniture lends itself to it.

The door has a lock with its own key. The lock works perfectly. This entrance is made of finely chiseled scrap and is very beautiful.

Inside the furniture, it is possible to store crockery or linen since the shelves have been cleaned thanks to a biological preventive treatment thus avoiding any odor therefore entirely natural.

At the bottom of the cabinet, we find a large drawer. It is dovetail ensuring perfect strength. This is how it can be opened daily and contain many objects. It slides perfectly.

The base of the cabinet rests on four very stable legs. The two back legs are straight, the two front legs are called "patties".

In modern interiors, this piece of furniture will be perfect because it has been aerogommé revealing its original natural patina.

Dans les intérieurs modernes, ce meuble sera parfait car il a été aérogommé révélant sa patine naturelle d'origine.
