Description

A somewhat exceptional lamp.

It is one large oil night light, "Provençal" (in the region they are called viholos or violas) from blown glass, worked with hot pliers, a rare model, with hollow column, spherical oil reservoir, col-flared receptacle, glass handle with thumb rest ending in a pigtail, and the beautiful large base in the shape of a doubly bell-shaped bell.

Wick passes through an iron washer which centers it.

Beautiful lamp, tall, similar model is in Arlaten museum, Arles, a few turns from us.

large size: 27cm x 14cm.

Condition: good, but small imperfections when blown, dust and scratches, one mini chip on edge of the receptacle, one patched chip on edge of the foot.
