Description

Earrings in silver and 750 thousandths (18K) yellow gold from the end of the 19th century. Each is adorned with a garland of flowers set with 3 rose-cut diamonds and highlighted with a fine, finely chiseled yellow gold garland; it is topped with a flower-shaped motif also set with a rose-cut diamond and highlighted with a fine chiseled gold garland. These very beautiful old buckles have yellow gold screw clasps which are not original. Good condition. 1.5 X 1.3cm PB: 4.9g
