

A Medieval Buckle With A Lioness Or Feline Beast, Circa, 12th-13th Century Ad Or Before

350 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Width : 5 c.m.

Description

A large two-part tongue-shaped buckle crudely engraved with a fantastical beast motif. The composition of this beast echoes prehistoric cave paintings or the compositions of the chalk hills of the United Kingdom. It was found at Whaplode in Lincolnshire near Spalding & Holbeach.

Dimensions: 5x4 cm.
